Catalano in the “Dolce Vita” scenario

Right in the heart of Rome,
in the main street of the
Fellini’s “Dolce Vita”,
Catalano opened its flagship impressive showroom.

Amazing design for people who love
beauty

Enjoy the coloured colours of Catalano

MAXCity is an annual Hungarian Exhibition that shows the freshest works of the best international design. This year the theme was the colour trends; Catalano played the game with its I MAESTRI COLORE.

Here we are !

Lingfield Park Marriott Hotel will open in 2010 in UK, Surrey, showing Catalano's newest products.

The hotel is in a 18-hole championship golf course placed in a fabulous countryside area.

Worldwide famous and important people choose Catalano collections

In the Caribbean Islands, Canadian musician Bryan Adams chooses Catalano's products for his new summer residence

*Kgalema Motlanthe,
President of South Africa*

In South Africa, the King's House is under renovations for the country's President. The historical house, located in Morningside, is the official State President's residence when he's in Durban.

Save the water

The world water crisis is one of the largest public issues of our time. Catalano's WCs, CWE certified, reduce the water consumption (only 3/4,5 litres flush), giving a positive solution in sanitary-ware market sector.

Outside, the style and fashion of Catalano design; inside, a high technological project.

Beauty and efficiency perfectly matched !
